The entire property is secured by an 8ft concrete wall which can be partially removed to offer unobstructed ocean views and beach access to the ground floor.

Very spacious floor plan with huge bedroom rooms on the upper level.

The marvelous master bedroom looks out into the turquoise ocean and has two fabulous walk-in closets. Your living area opens up onto a patio directly on the beach, a breathtaking outdoor dining area, creating a perfect balance between indoor and outdoor.

This view from here is incredible!!

The famous turquoise colors of Simpson Bay are a real beauty. Mix it with those red sunsets and you have the perfect recipe for art and romance.

Special location; special moments and special views.

The gourmet kitchen offers an open plan experience with two sinks on each side of the kitchen and a generously sized island in which the stove is fitted.

This is the largest beachfront terrace I have seen. It feels like I am on my own private stretch of beach that extends from the house. I can imagine a small gazebo with massage table while I get my weekly swedish massage! The waves sound soothing as you wind your evening away into the sunset. Listening to the waves will be your new favourite hobby.

A constant refreshing breeze keeps the Simpson Bay villa and you cool during the day; as you both enjoy the St Maarten sun!

This home will provide luxury, comfort and relaxation on one of the world's finest beaches! Enjoy the soft white coral sand and crystal clear turquoise waters of the Caribbean Sea. St Maarten people call it White Sands for a reason!

The beauty is in the beach. Simpson Bay Beach is over a mile long and rather wide and the waters of the Caribbean Sea are quiet and calm most of the year. There are no high rise buildings along the shore-line and not much beach activities on Simpson Bay Beach. It represents a remarkable contrast to the busy main street of Simpson Bay with it's bars and restaurants. The beach at Simpson Bay is very inviting for a beach walk. Great views at sunset add to the romantic atmosphere. The view of the island of Saba from a distance, which looks like a big mountain peaking out of the sea is just specular. It is just a perfect spot for spending a quiet day on the beach.

Although the beach is lovely, it is visited by only few and is well worth the visit for lovers of deserted beaches. It has some water sports, yet it is still a quiet and relaxing beach.

This beachfront beauty is not only the perfect home for a family but can also generate a vast amount of rental income.
