Situated in the hills of BelAir, Villa Anahata has a view to surely blow your mind away and very therapeutic after a hard days of work.

It's a spacious three-bedroom villa with three bathrooms plus a separate studio suite; making a total of four bedrooms and four bathrooms within this well-designed Belair Villa.

Fully furnished with a concept that is inside out, bedrooms on the lower floor and living area on the upper floor including dining, covered porch, walk out from your porch to your pool and sun deck. Designed to bring the family together while giving privacy to each bedroom.

Does this sound amazing or what, it's a great place for family and friends to chill while you enjoy the calming view of the blue ocean and glimmering sands of Little Bay beach all within a short walk. On a clear day you will notice Saba island in the distant; offering a point of attraction during you morning coffee time.

The pool lounge borders the pool while you enjoy the shade from the coconut tree or enjoy the infinity-edge pool and the view of the ocean.

This home is a must-see, it would be a pleasure for us at Century 21 Island Realty to organize a viewing.

Our service is second to none and our agents are professionals who are always willing to assist.

Call us today and we are sure to make your island dream come through.
