The neighborhood is upscale with a number of high profile neighbors. This is paradise! You can see these breath taking views of the ocean from your balcony, living room, and from your bedrooms. For added bonus of privacy and security all condos have been fitted with strong hurricane shutters. One of the features I love is the unique entrance porch (not in photos) that every apartment offers; offering the chance to use the space as a second balcony or a green zone.

As you enter the modern condo you arrive in a beautiful open-plan space with a contemporary kitchen and spacious living area right before the endless blue ocean views which can be seen from the panoramic balcony. The two large bedrooms have built in modern bathrooms with custom fitted wardrobes. The bedroom truly offers the best ocean views I have experienced. Make each morning ultra-special! Photographers use this location for capturing the awe-inspiring sunrises here.
