Tepui 104 Location

St. Maarten is known for being the smallest landmass in the world, shared by two different nations; France and the Netherlands. This tiny dot in the Caribbean Sea, is not to be underestimated as it offers dozens of beaches, hiking trails, luxury hotels and villas, casino's and over 300 restaurants. Our International Airport has grown to become a connecting hub in the Northern Caribbean and connects you directly with major international cities such as New York, Miami, Panama City, Paris and Amsterdam.

St. Maarten is home to the Caribbean's biggest annual Heineken Regatta, the much anticipated carnival in April and great summer festivals.

Our population is not only diverse, but very friendly. Living here will set the stage for extraordinary experiences.
